

Adriatic and the Dalmatian Coast

September 4, 2027 - September 12, 2027

Program Overview

Embark on an enriching seven-night cruise aboard the deluxe World Traveller, uncovering the rich history and stunning landscapes of Croatia, Montenegro and Greece. Beginning in Venice and ending in Athens, this journey takes you through ancient walled cities, medieval villages and iconic archaeological sites steeped in centuries of culture. Explore UNESCO World Heritage treasures such as Dubrovnik's seventh-century city walls, Kotor's charming old town nestled beneath emerald slopes, and Split's remarkable fourth-century Palace of Diocletian. Visit Corfu's iconic Old Town and step back in time at Delphi's Temple of Apollo, once considered the center of the ancient world. Throughout your voyage, engage with expert lecturers who bring the fascinating stories of Roman, Greek, Byzantine, Slavic and Venetian civilizations to life, enriching your understanding of the region's diverse heritage. Savor masterfully crafted wines and fresh, local cuisine as you glide through breathtaking harbors and picturesque towns, including historic Hvar and the stunning Bay of Kotor. Deepen your experience with our optional Athens Post-Tour Extension.

Day-by-Day Program Itinerary

- The Activity Level ratings indicate each excursion's physical expectations. To make the best personal choice, please evaluate each excursion's rating and your ability to meet the tour's physical demands.

Mild excursions involve:

- Walking for 1.5 hours or more over uneven terrain
- Walking on challenging surfaces: cobblestones, uneven paths and/or pavements
- Climbing stairs and hills and crossing rail tracks
- Ascending and descending narrow (and sometimes steep) gangplanks
- Stepping on and off motorcoaches with 3-6 steep steps

Moderate excursions could involve the above, plus:

- Walking for 3 hours for distances of a mile or more
- Walking on uneven terrain: narrow cobblestone streets, stone floors, and/or slippery surfaces. There may be several flights of stairs, some without railings

Active excursions could involve the above, plus:

- Walking on uneven terrain: sandy or rocky beaches and/or steep inclines
- Standing for 2 hours or more at a time, possibly without areas to sit
- Climbing 100 stairs or more
- Additional challenges, such as long jeep rides, bumpy boat rides or hikes

- Depending on the excursion, more leisurely alternatives to active excursions may be available.

Day 1 | Depart Home City

Depart for Venice, Italy.

Day 2 | Venice, Italy | Embark

Arrive at Venice Marco Polo Airport. Later this afternoon, embark the World Traveller, where you can settle in your cabin and unpack. This evening, attend a Gohagan & Company Welcome Briefing and lifeboat drill, followed by dinner.

Day 3 | Split, Croatia

Spend a morning cruising. Later this morning, gather for a Welcome Reception.

This afternoon, disembark for an excursion in Split. This ancient imperial city is the second largest in Croatia. Founded as the Greek colony of Aspálathos in the second century B.C., Split was the site of a grand fortified palace for the Roman emperor Diocletian in the fourth century. Today, it's a bustling blend of Old-World charm and contemporary chic where pre-Romanesque churches, Gothic chapels, historic museums, art galleries and cosmopolitan cafes comingle along picturesque cobblestone streets.This ancient imperial city is the second largest in Croatia. Today, it's a bustling blend of Old-World charm and contemporary chic where pre-Romanesque churches, Gothic chapels, historic museums, art galleries and cosmopolitan cafes comingle along picturesque cobblestone streets.

Disembark for an excursion in this exciting city.

Split Tour.Experience the sights and sounds of Split on a panoramic tour that includes a visit to the spectacular UNESCO World Heritage-inscribed Diocletian's Palace. Enjoy a guided walking tour of the palace, including a visit to its well-preserved cellars. Next, visit the Cathedral of Saint Dominus, the patron saint of Split, and the Temple of Jupiter. Conclude your tour with exterior visits to the Golden Gate, Silver Gate and Peristyle Square — ancient Roman entry points to the Old Town that were originally a part of Diocletian's Palace.(Moderate)

Day 4 | Hvar

Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar, a key center of the Croatian Renaissance. This stunning island in the Adriatic Sea is renowned for its vibrant lavender fields, historic architecture and crystal-clear waters. Hvar town is famous for its fortress and charming old streets

Hvar Tour. Take a guided walking tour of the Old Town's remarkably preserved landmarks within its 13th-century walls. See St. Stephen's Cathedral, built in 1605, and its four-story bell tower. Continue to the Benedictine Monastery, founded in 1664, to see handcrafted lace made by nuns from agave and aloe thread — a delicate, labor-intensive practice inscribed as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. Your guide will explain how the lace, still made by nuns, is produced. If time permits, you may enjoy an active hike up to Hvar's Fortica, called Spanjola by locals. The path winds through a botanical garden and backstreets. The views from the top are fantastic! (Moderate)

Traveler's Choice | Choose ONE of the following included excursions.

Vineyards of Hvar and Wine Tasting. Wine tasting in Hvar is a delightful experience, combining the island's rich viticultural heritage with breathtaking scenery. Local wineries produce exceptional wines, especially Plavac Mali, a robust red grape native to the region. Tour a beautiful vineyard and learn about traditional winemaking techniques passed down through generations. Tastings are often accompanied by local snacks! Enjoy this sensory experience surrounded by Hvar's stunning coastal landscapes.(Moderate)

Hvar Beach Club. Visiting a beach club in Hvar is the perfect blend of relaxation and vibrant social energy. You might lounge by the turquoise Adriatic, take a dip in the sea or simply soak up the sun.(Mild

Fortica Fortress Hike. For an invigorating outing, join a hike up to Hvar's Fortica Fortress, perched high above the historic town. Follow a scenic path through fragrant Mediterranean vegetation to reach the fortress, where you'll be rewarded with sweeping views over Hvar's red-roofed town, the sparkling Adriatic Sea and the nearby Pakleni Islands.(Active)

Return to the ship for an evening spent aboard.

Day 5 | Dubrovnik

Disembarkfor a guided walking tour of Dubrovnik, often called the "Pearl of the Adriatic." This historic city on Croatia's southern coast is famous for its stunning medieval architecture and well-preserved city walls. The Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, features cobblestone streets, baroque churches and the iconic Rector's Palace. The city's unique combination of history, culture and scenic charm makes it a must-visit destination.

Dubrovnik Walking Tour. Enter the city gate to see the Large Onofrio's Fountain, a beloved city landmark designed in 1438 as part of a water supply system that brought water from a spring over seven miles away. Only 16 carved masks, with water dribbling from their mouths, remain of the original fountain that was damaged in the 1667 earthquake. Admire the neighboring façade of St. Savior Church, built in the 1520s and considered the first comprehensive Renaissance-style building in Dubrovnik, built by Korčula's master builders, Brothers Andrijic, who also built Korčula's Cathedral. Next, visit the 14thcentury Romanesque Franciscan Church and Monastery, considered a masterpiece of architecture built by Croatian master, Mihoje Brajkov. The large complex, which belongs to the Order of the Friars Minor, consists of a friary, church, library and a historical pharmacy museum. Continue to one of Dubrovnik's most significant monuments, the Rector's Palace. Through the years, the palace served many functions, including a prison, an administrative office and the rector's home. (Moderate)

Later this afternoon, the ship departs Dubrovnik. Sit on the sun deck and watch as sea views and lovely coastline drifts by.

Special Performance: This evening, delight in a traditional klapa, an a cappella folk music performance. The klapa is recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Day 6 | Kotor, Montenegro

Savor breakfast on the ship this morning while cruising to the Balkan country of Montenegro. Stop in Kotor for an excursion. In the most secluded corner of Kotor Bay lies the historical walled town of Kotor, a UNESCO World Heritage site. An important artistic and commercial center in the Middle Ages with its own famous schools of masonry and iconography, the town fell under the rule of the Republic of Venice between 1420 and 1797 — leaving a permanent imprint on its architecture. While a large part of Kotor was damaged during a 1979 earthquake, it is fully restored today and stands as one of the bestpreserved fortified medieval towns in the Mediterranean.

Kotor Walking Tour. Stroll through these storied streets and squares on a walking tour. At the heart of the town stands the magnificent Cathedral of Saint Tryphon, a striking Romanesque structure dating back to the 12th century. Admire its intricate façade, impressive bell towers and the beautifully preserved interior adorned with frescoes, relics, and ornate altars. As you explore, immerse yourself in the rich history of this UNESCO World Heritage site, feeling the blend of Venetian, Byzantine, and local influences that make Kotor a unique gem on the Adriatic coast. (Moderate)

Back on board, dig into lunch and enjoy sailing the Bay of Kotor, one of the most breathtaking experiences on the Adriatic — often compared to cruising through a fjord, but with a distinctly Mediterranean flair. As your ship glides between towering limestone mountains and tranquil blue waters, every turn reveals a postcard-perfect view: tiny stone villages, ancient churches perched on rocky islets, and terracotta rooftops nestled against dramatic cliffs. It's not just a route — it's a journey through Montenegro's heart, where natural beauty, culture, and history blend into a truly spectacular panorama. Dinner is served on board tonight.

Day 7 | Corfu, Greece

The ship arrives in Corfu around noon. Located in a strategic position at the entrance of the Adriatic Sea, the island of Corfu has its roots in the 8th century B.C. and is renowned for its incredible beauty, exceptional architecture, cultural heritage and stunning scenery. Enjoy lunch on board before departing for your Corfu tour.

Corfu Walking Tour. Discover the timeless charm of Corfu Town on this engaging excursion combining history, culture, and leisure. Begin with an approximately 1½-hour guided walking tour through the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Old Town. Stroll along narrow cobbled streets, admire elegant Venetian architecture, and see some of the town's most notable landmarks as your guide shares stories of Corfu's fascinating past. Following the tour, enjoy free time to explore independently. Browse local boutiques and shops, pause at a café for a taste of traditional Greek specialties, or simply wander the picturesque streets and take in the lively atmosphere. (Moderate)

Your afternoon is at leisure. Explore Corfu's old town, wandering the narrow cobblestone streets and Venetian plazas. Settle in at a café for a Greek coffee or local wine. Dinner is served back on board.

Day 8 | Itea for Delphi | Corinth Canal

Arrive in Itea, located in the Phocis region, and disembark for an excursion to Delphi

Delphi Tour.Take a guided tour of the UNESCO World Heritage site of Delphi, where the Oracle of Delphi was believed to deliver prophecies from the Greek god, Apollo, who was the Olympian god of light, knowledge and harmony. Imbued with sacred meaning, Delphi of the 6th-century B.C. was the religious center and symbol of unity of the ancient Greek world. Step into the ancient stadium of Delphi, where the legendary Pythian Games showcased athletic skill and celebrated the god Apollo. Walk along the Sacred Way to the iconic sanctuary of Delphi and stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the ancient Greeks awaited the Oracle's pronouncements.(Moderate)

Lunch is served back on board.

This evening, thrill to the experience of cruising through the 70-foot wide, recently reopened, Corinth Canal, which was closed for two years after a 2021 landslide.

Raise a toast to your grand adventure at a Farewell Reception and Dinner on board the ship this evening.

Day 9 | Athens | Disembark | Return to Home City

The ship arrives in Athens this morning. Disembark after breakfast and transfer to the Athens airport for your return flight home.
